The human race is spread all over the world, from the polar regions to the tropics. The people of which it is made up, eat different kinds of food, partly according to the climate in which they live, and partly according to the kind of food which their country produces. Thus in India, the people live chiefly on different kinds of grain, eggs, milk, or sometimes fish and meat. In Europe, the people eat more flesh and less grain. In the Arctic regions, where no grain and fruits are produced, the Eskimo and other races live almost entirely on flesh, especially fat. The kind of food eaten also depends very often on custom or habit and sometimes upon religion.

- d) Expand one of the following : [1×5=5]

- Work is worship
- Cleanliness is next to Godliness
- A penny saved is a penny gained.
